- ✓ Significant changes in plans or operations of the Company
- ✓ Any other event as may be decided by the Compliance Officer

- 5.4 In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the Trading Window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when the Trading Window is closed.
- 5.5 The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company.

6.0 TRADING PLAN:

- 6.1 An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- 6.2 Such trading plan shall:-
- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- 6.3 The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- 6.4 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.
- Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.
- 6.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

7.0 PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES;

- 7.1 An Insider shall deal in Securities of the Company only after securing pre-clearance in accordance with this code and no Insider shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.
- 7.2 All applications for pre-clearance shall be made in the form at Form I to this Code.
- 7.3 Unless a Trading Plan is presented by the Insider and approved by the Competent Authority as per this Code, trading by the Insiders shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Competent Authority during the period when the Trading Window is open. The requirement of such pre-clearance is not applicable if the aggregate market value of all the transactions of the Securities of the Company does not exceed Rs.2,00,000/- in that calendar month.
- 7.4 Prior to approving any trades, the competent authority as per this code shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- 7.5 Transactions for which pre-clearance has been accorded shall be executed within seven trading days within which trades that have been pre cleared have to be executed by the Insider, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.
- 7.6 Any Insider who has been permitted to trade on the securities of the Company shall not execute a contra trade within a period of six months from the date of executing the original trade. However, the compliance officer may grant relaxation on a case to case to basis for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate such regulations. Should a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise in violation of the above restrictions, the profits, if any, from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to Securities and Exchange Board of India(SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.
- 7.7 The Competent Authority to accord pre-clearance shall be as follows;

(a)for Chairman-cum-Managing Director	Board of Directors is the approving Authority
(b)for Directors and Compliance Officer	Chairman-cum-Managing Director is the approving Authority
(c) Other Designated Employees	Compliance Officer

- 7.8 The Compliance Officer shall duly report to the Chairman-cum-Managing Director the details of pre-clearance(s), if any, accorded during a month within ten days of the commencement of the following month and shall submit a consolidated report, if any, to Board of Directors annually.
- 7.9 Before according pre-clearance, the competent authority shall satisfy that the proposed transaction is not in contravention of this code.

PROHIBITION OF SPECULATIVE TRANSACTIONS

- 8.1 All the Insiders are prohibited from engaging in speculative transactions with respect to Securities of the Company. The prohibition shall also apply to other employees of the Company, even if he is not an Insider within the meaning of the Code or Regulations.
- 8.2 For a transaction to qualify as being for investment purposes and not as speculative, the Insider shall be required to hold the investment for a minimum period of 30 days. This restriction shall also apply to subscription to an issue of shares by the Company (public, rights or otherwise), in which case the holding period would be reckoned from the date the Securities are actually allotted in favour of the concerned employee;

Provided that where sale of Securities of the Company is necessitated due to personal emergency, the Competent Authority mentioned in Clause 7 above may, for valid and justifiable reasons and to be recorded in writing, waive the minimum holding period.

9.0 DISCLOSURES AND REPORTING

- 9.1 All the persons covered under the Regulations shall make disclosures as stipulated in Chapter III of the Regulation in the Form and in the form and the manner prescribed therein with respect to themselves as well as their Immediate Relatives reflecting their respective holding/transactions of the Securities of the Company:

i. Initial Disclosure

In terms of Regulation 7 (1) of Chapter III, the number of shares or voting rights held by him/her and his/her Immediate Relative in Form II, within 30 days of this Code coming into force.

Disclosure shall be made in Form III, within 7 (seven) working days on becoming covered under this Code at any point of time.

ii. Continual Disclosure

In terms of Regulation 7 (2) of Chapter III, any transaction in securities of the Company in terms of pre-clearance approval accorded, shall be disclosed within 2 working days of such transaction in Form IV. Reporting of decisions not to trade after securing pre-clearance along with reasons for such decisions shall also be disclosed in Form IV within 2 working days from the date of expiry of the pre-clearance approval.

- iii. Disclosure shall be made in Form V, within two trading days of such transaction, if the value of the securities traded, whether in one or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rupees Two Lakh.

iv. Annual Disclosure

Annual disclosure by the designated employees of number of securities held as on last date of the financial year, including details of each transaction of purchase/sale of shares and other securities during the financial year Form VI within 30 days from the close of each financial year.

- 9.2 The Compliance Officer shall place before the Chairman-cum-Managing Director or before such other Senior Officer or Committee as may be specified in this behalf by the Chairman-cum-Managing Director on a monthly basis, the details of all the disclosures reported in terms of Clause 8.1 and 8.2 together with the completed Forms I to VI as applicable and the documents submitted.
- 9.3 Any instance of non-compliance of this Code or of the Regulations, shall be reported with full details promptly by the Compliance Officer to the Chairman-cum-Managing Director,
- 9.4 Every case where it is observed by the Company/Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of the Regulations, shall be duly informed by the Company to Securities and Exchange Board of India.

10.0 PRESERVATION OF RECORDS;

Reports/Forms rendered in terms of this Code shall be preserved by the Company for at least five years.

11.0 CONTRAVENTION OF THE REGULATIONS OR CODE;

- 11.1 Without prejudice to any action or proceedings that may be instituted against any employee under the Regulations, any designated employee of the Company who deals in the Securities of the Company in contravention of the provisions of this Code shall be deemed to be guilty of misconduct and shall be liable to be proceeded departmentally under the Certified Standing Orders or the NLC Employees Conduct Rules or such other Regulations/ Rules as may be applicable from time to time.
- 11.2 The provisions contained in this Code shall be in addition to and not in derogation or substitution of any duty, obligation or requirement on the part of an employee or any Immediate relative of such employee under the Certified Standing Orders or the NLC Employee Conduct Rules as the case may be or such other rules/regulations as may be applicable from time to time.
